

RHYTHM WORKS DANCE LIABILITY FORM

This is a dance class in which you have chosen to participate in. You must realize that there is a certain assumption of risk which you engender, when participating in an active dance class. YOU MUST BE AWARE OF THIS ASSUMPTION:

Throughout the conduct of this class you will receive competent, progressive, sequential instruction, and proper supervision. Every effort will be made to keep all facilities and equipment in good safe workable condition. You will not be asked to do anything which is inconsistent with the activity or is in any way not reasonable and prudent.

However, the entire responsibility is not the instructor's. You too have a responsibility. For your own safe participation, you must call attention of the instructor anytime you have unusual difficulty performing a skill and or anytime you are feeling unduly fatigued or ill. PLEASE DO NOT ATTEND CLASS IF YOU ARE FEVERISH, VOMITING OR EXTREMELY ILL.

Also, you are required to follow the rules and regulations set down by the instructor for your safety (this is posted in the studio). Should an injury occur during participation in this class, the injured party is responsible for all financial obligations incurred in this process and subsequent treatment, necessitated by the injury. Please discuss with the instructor any known physical problems which may limit your participation in class.

Every attempt to begin classes on time will be made. All students are expected to participate in warm up and cool down. If students are late, they are expected to warm themselves up and begin class slowly, using prudent judgement.
